OVERVIEW/PURPOSE STATEMENT:

ED and surgical providers need to demonstrate a well-rounded and up to date approach to trauma care. This lecture using power point presentations, case reviews and open forum discussions educates providers on what is going well in the trauma patient population as well as areas for improvement.

OVERALL OBJECTIVES:

1 Identify criteria for trauma patient evaluation and transfer.

2 Identify criteria for trauma team activation based on current guidelines.

3 Recognize latent trauma findings that require surgical consultation.

4 Recognize subspecialty trauma findings that warrant specialty consultation.

ACCREDITATION AND DESIGNATION STATEMENT:

Allina Health is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The individual is responsible for determining whether this activity meets the requirements for acceptable continuing education for their discipline. In addition, you may be required to provide proof of attendance to the board upon request such as certificate, handout, agenda, etc. You should claim only those hours spent in the educational program.

Physicians: Allina Health designates this Live Activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Non-Physicians: Allina Health designates this Live Activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™.

Minnesota Board of Nursing: This activity has been designed to meet the Minnesota Board of Nursing continuing education requirements for 1.00 hours of CEU. Nurses should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

DISCLOSURE POLICY AND STATEMENTS:

Allina Health, Office of Accreditation intends to provide balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of its educational activities and will adhere to the ACCME's Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education. The ACCME defines an ineligible company as "any entity" whose primary business is producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care products/services used by or on patients. The ACCME does not consider providers of clinical service directly to patients to be commercial interests - unless the provider of clinical service is owned, or controlled by, an ACCME-defined ineligible company.

Any individual in a position to control the content of a CE activity, including faculty, planners, reviewers, or others are required to disclose all relevant financial relationships with ineligible entities (commercial interests) that have existed WITHIN THE LAST 24 MONTHS, even if it has now ended. All relevant financial relationships/conflicts of interest have been mitigated prior to the commencement of the activity.
