OVERVIEW/PURPOSE STATEMENT:

The Schwartz Rounds program provides a regular open forum for a multidisciplinary discussion of the psychosocial and emotional aspects of working in healthcare. Each session is organized around a compelling theme or patient story and includes both clinical and nonclinical panelists and participants.

OVERALL OBJECTIVES:

- 1 Describe the emotional, social, and ethical impact of providing patient care.
- 2 Identify strategies to enhance teamwork and communication of interprofessional teams.
- 3 Synthesize information from the experiences and perspectives of colleagues to better handle tough or sensitive patient situations.

ACCREDITATION AND DESIGNATION STATEMENT:

Allina Health is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The individual is responsible for determining whether this activity meets the requirements for acceptable continuing education for their discipline. In addition, you may be required to provide proof of attendance to the board upon request such as certificate, handout, agenda, etc. You should claim only those hours spent in the educational program.

Physicians: Allina Health designates this Live Activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)<sup>TM</sup>. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

DISCLOSURE POLICY AND STATEMENTS:

Allina Health, Office of Accreditation intends to provide balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of its educational activities and will adhere to the ACCME's Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education. The ACCME defines an ineligible company as "any entity" whose primary business is producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care products/services used by or on patients. The ACCME does not consider providers of clinical service directly to patients to be commercial interests - unless the provider of clinical service is owned, or controlled by, an ACCME-defined ineligible company.

Any individual in a position to control the content of a CE activity, including faculty, planners, reviewers, or others are required to disclose all relevant financial relationships with ineligible entities (commercial interests) that have existed WITHIN THE LAST 24 MONTHS, even if it has now ended. All relevant financial relationships/conflicts of interest have been mitigated prior to the commencement of the activity.
